SONGS OF SALVATION

WHY NOT TO-NIGHT?

Times—Confidence, 4. P. Emma, 6. G. Songbooks 108.
Oh, do not let thy Lord depart,
And close thine eyes against the light;
Poor sinner, hasten not thy flight,
Thou wouldst be saved—why not to-night?

To-morrow's sun may never rise
To bless thy long-deluded sight;
This is the time—Oh, then be wise!
Thou wouldst be saved—why not to-night?

Our God is thy fingers' skill;
Oh, wilt thou thus His love requite?
Remember at length thy sinfulness
Will—
Thou wouldst be saved—why not to-night?

EVERLASTING LOVE

"Sovereignty," 119; "Maiden," 117.
Would Jesus have the sinner die?
Why hangs He then on yonder tree?
What means that strange expiring cry?
Shan't He pray for you and me?
"Forgive them, Father, oh, forgive them!"
They knew not that by Me they live!

Thou bring, all-atoning Lamb!
Thy blood for the painful agony;
Thy bloody sweat, Thy grief and shame,
Thy cross, and passion on the tree.

LATEST NEWS OF SALVATION FIGHTING ON THE FIELD

HAMILTON I.

Colonel Jacobs Conducts Sunday Meetings—Sixteen Seekers at Mercy-Seat.

On Sunday, January 23, we were favoured by a visit from Colonel Jacobs. The meetings were very well attended. In the morning the Colonel delivered a stirring address. In the afternoon he commissioned the League of Mercy members and addressed them. The flag was held by Sergeant Jones, a trophy of the League of Mercy, he being converted in the Hamilton Jail through their instrumentality over seven years ago. The Colonel shook hands with him on the platform and commented on the work done by the League. At night the Colonel delivered a powerful address. A fine prayer meeting followed, ending with sixteen souls at the mercy-seat. Commandant Parsons, recently decorated the infant son of Brother and Sister T. Arcene, Kenneth Russell. The carriage music for last week was the largest on record in our Corps.

The Friday night Holiness meetings, conducted by Adjutant Hargrave, are very well attended, and are a means of help and blessing. Our Band and Singers' Brigade are both doing well under their respective leaders, Bandmaster McDonald and Singers' Leader Fred Johnson.

The Band and Singers' annual tea was held on February 1, about one hundred and twenty-five being present.

LONDON III.

Eight Seekers at Mercy-Seat.

The spirit of the Campaign has taken hold of the community here. Young and old are being stirred with an enthusiasm for souls. The week-end of January 23-24 was one of special blessing to the Corps. Ensign Porter of Toronto conducted the meetings, which were well attended all day Sunday. At night we had the joy of seeing eight souls at the mercy-seat, including several young men and women who came out to freshly consecrate their lives for service.

The Corps has been labouring under difficulty of late, owing to the fact that we have no regular Hall for our meetings. However, we have proved that we are no respecter of places, and even in a small room, where we were obliged to use, has been made sacred by the presence. Our Corps Officers, Captain and Mrs. Kerr, as well as the Soldiers and comrades, are eagerly watching the progress of our new Hall, which has just been commenced.

MONCTON.

Campaign Going Well—Seventeen Seekers.

The Great Call Campaign continues to go with a swing. Adjutant and Mrs. Green, and the meetings last Sunday, the Corps Cadets assisting. Two Soldiers were enrolled in the afternoon. The Hall was packed at night and two seekers sought Salvation. The Junior work continues to progress. The attendance at Company meeting last Sunday was 132. On Monday, General Hamilton held a meeting for the boys and girls, and fifteen sought Jesus.

PETERBORO I.

Mrs. Brigadier Green Leads Week-End Meetings—Eight Seek Salvation.

We were very pleased to have a visit from Mrs. Brigadier Green for a recent week-end. The meetings for the preceding part of the week had been full of blessing and power, and so the comrades came up to the week-end full of expectation. Our Junior Hall was packed for the Saturday night meeting and after the preliminaries, we had a rousing testimony meeting, in which a great number testified to the saving and keeping power of Jesus Christ. Mrs. Green afterwards gave a helpful address.

On Sunday morning twenty-two attended kneel-drill, and the power of God came mightily upon those gathered together. Three comrades reconsecrated themselves for better service.

In the Holiness meeting we had a beautiful time, and Mrs. Green's stirring appeal for whole-hearted service and mission has lived in the hearts of those who heard.

At night we had two men, although the weather was cold, and afterwards had a Salvation meeting, in which the power of God was made manifest. The prayer meeting was a real fight for souls—hard at first—but when the ice was broken, the Spirit of God came down and eight souls knelt at the Cross.

On Monday afternoon a service was held with the sisters of the Corps, and a good attendance was recorded. At night the Junior Hall was crowded and Mrs. Green gave her life story.

CAMPBELLFORD.

Backsliders Return to God—Lieut. Colonel Bettridge Leads Sunday Meetings.

The comrades of the Corps have taken upon their hearts the Great Call Campaign. We had our faith rewarded on backsliders' Sunday, when three backsliders returned to God. Two of them were returned to God, one had been a Junior of this Corps when a little girl.

On Saturday and Sunday, January 23-24, we had Holiness meetings with us. We had the joy of seeing a young couple come on, the husband for a deeper experience and the wife to seek Salvation. A young returned man came out also. He had been a backslider for some time.

Our cottage prayer meetings are proving to be a great blessing, and we are getting fresh people as a result. Our recent converts are pressing, and are a great addition to the Corps for a deeper experience were enrolled during January.

MONTREAL I.

We were glad to have Brigadier McMillan with us on Sunday night, and on Monday, General Hamilton held a meeting for the boys and girls, and fifteen sought Jesus.

WYCHWOOD BAND.

Visits Newmarket and Gives Two Musical Festivals—Lieut. Colonel Morehen Presides.

The town of Newmarket was the scene of much Salvation Army activity on Saturday and Sunday, January 23-24. Lieut. Colonel and Mrs. Morehen, accompanied by the Wychwood Band, made a special visit for the purpose of giving musical festivals, which have been renovated through-out.

A very soon after the arrival of the visitors a rousing open-air service was held in the centre of the town. A large crowd listened attentively to the Salvation message and strains of music. After a short march on the Main Street we proceeded to the Town Hall for the first Musical Festival. The Colonel made an excellent chairman, and soon had everybody feeling at home.

Stunning the various items on the programme were the "Selected Land of Canby" and "Evening." The band showed its ability in selection and playing. The Colonel and Mrs. Morehen were in the front of the band. The Sergeant-Major was in the front of the band. The Sergeant-Major was in the front of the band.

A good spirit prevailed in the Salvation meeting. Mrs. Morehen gave an earnest address. Testimonies and Bible readings by the Bandmen helped to bless the people.

Much credit is due Sergeant-Major and Frances Nell for their excellent items in the piano, and Bandmaster C. Thompson and Bennett for their vocal numbers.

SUDBURY.

Brigadier McAmmond Enrolls New Soldiers—Fifteen Seekers in Two Weeks.

We are having good times here, soldiers are demonstrating their love to God and sinners are seeking Salvation. On Sunday, January 23, at our fall meeting, boys' souls sought by Mrs. Swales. Mrs. Page, Capt. Jacot and Corp. Galt. At night, after stiff fighting, we rejoiced over five penitents at the mercy-seat.

Our Holiness meetings, too, are very encouraging. They are led by various comrades, and God is sealing the efforts with His presence and power. The week-end meetings were led by Brigadier and Mrs. McAmmond. On Sunday morning Captain Green, from Sudbury, and Mrs. Green, from Sudbury, were here at the fall meeting. Seven men held up their hands, asking us to pray for them. In the Holiness meeting two comrades sought the blessing. At night the Brigadier enrolled a young woman as a Soldier, and two young men as Soldiers. He then dedicated five children.

At the close of the meeting we prayed God for six young people seeking Salvation. We have started the Scout movement, and are out to win many bright young lives for God and His service.

LONDON II.

Special Meetings During January Result in Twenty-Seven Seekers at the Mercy-Seat.

During the month of January programme of special meetings was arranged and rich times have been experienced. Souls have been converted. God's people touched and lives reconsecrated to Him forever. The Great Call campaign was launched during the Week-End Service. Staff-Captain and Mrs. Ritchie were also conducted by the Staff-Captain and his wife, and a real blessing was bestowed.

The services on the following Sunday were conducted by Staff-Captain. Special services were arranged from January 12 to 18, these being conducted by the Staff-Captain and his wife, and a real blessing was bestowed.

DOING GOOD WORK.

Newspaper Reporter's Account of What the Army is Doing in Point St. Charles, Montreal.

Every man who went overseas has a kindly word to say about the Salvation Army. It was right on the job "over there" all the time of the dark-days, and now in the reconstruction period its helping hand, kindly sympathy and friendly counsel is evident on every side. (says a writer in the "Advertiser," Montreal.) In Point St. Charles, especially, although it is plainly evident that the same is the feeling in other parts of the city, and in fact all over the Dominion, the "Army's" more popular to-day than ever before, and that's saying something.

In going about among the people of Point St. Charles this week the writer heard very flattering accounts of the Salvation Army and its work. It is adding thousands of new recruits to get them out of work, help the widows and orphans, and the good things all around and caring in a very special way for the young people of the Point.

Is it any wonder then that since Captain W. Bosher came from Sydney, Nova Scotia, six months ago, to take charge of the Army work at the Point, the "Army's" more popular to-day than ever before, and that's saying something.

The interest in the Young People's Work is increasing. The Guards and the Scouts have evening classes once a week, and time of all ages are also looked after. The poor people know their friends—the Army Officers—and they take all their troubles to them. The result is that the hardens become easier to hear, in some cases they disappear entirely. On Tuesday an old lady of sixty was called to see the Captain. She was very scarce with her, but a helpful smile and words sent her away smiling and happy.

WESTVILLE.

Four Soldiers Enrolled—Eight Seekers.

We had a real good week-end on Families' Sunday. Four Young People were enrolled, some of whom were converted on the Young People's day at New Glasgow. At the close of the Sunday night meeting eight Young People surrendered to Christ.

INCIDENT COMPETITION

HOW A FAMOUS SONG CAME TO BE WRITTEN

WHEN stationed in beautiful Bermuda as a single Officer I often heard stratches of the then popular song, "Don't send her away, John," and mentioned to Captain Newell (Now Mrs. Commandant McElhinney) who was so sick-far from home, "Some day when I get an inspiration I will compose a Salvation song to that tune."

The thought vanished for several years, but the inspiration came when needed. Engaged in educational work in Newfoundland, and travelling in my own home (Westport, N.S.) to spend my Summer holidays, via St. John, N.B., I was forced to remain for the weekend. Having been stationed at No. 1, previously, the afternoon, all alone in the Quarters, I became very much humiliated for the backsliders, before whom I would have to stand that evening, some who were saved during my stay.

Then I thought, "What will I sing to-night?" I began running my fingers over my anthology (my constant companion in those days) and the thought of "The Soldier's Song" came into my mind.

GOODNESS TO THEM. Sergeant Crews spoke on behalf of the Cadets who were far away after spending four weeks in our midst. The Captain then took the lesson. Two Young People reconsecrated themselves to God for service. Ensign Crews, a former Officer, conducted the Hall-high wind-up.

On Monday night the Band conducted a Salvation meeting. Band-Sergeant Barclay held in charge. Some very good testimonies were given, and the Band-Sergeant's Bible talk was of an original character.

MONTREAL II.

Central Holiness Meeting Led by Lieut. Colonel and Mrs. Bettridge.

The Hall was filled on Friday, January 28, for the Central Holiness meeting, which was conducted by Lieut. Colonel and Mrs. Bettridge. One soul came to the mercy-seat for reconsecration. The Sunday meetings were conducted by Captain and Mrs. Bosher, and at night one Junior came forward. The carriages are on the increase, the last few weeks being the best ever recorded.

SAULT STE. MARIE.

New Hall Opened in Soo West—Brigadier McAmmond Conducts Week-End Meetings.

The early stages of the Great Call Campaign, which means all-round advancement for God and His Kingdom, has been characterized by the opening of a new Hall in Sault Ste. Marie, West, formerly known as St. Joseph. Brigadier D. McAmmond, our Divisional Commander, visited on Thursday and Friday, January 23-24, to conduct the dedicatory service, and also a half night of prayer, Gospel shots, in the form of short testimonies and exhortations, accompanied by the strains from the band were the means employed for heralding the entry of the Army in this district. The seating accommodation was taken to capacity.

The Brigadier expressed the hope that the new building would be the scene of many soldiers being trained to fight, and that specialists in soul-saving work would be raised from among them. Captain Green followed with the reading of a statement setting forth the needs of making the building suitable for Corps work amounting to $100,000, which, it is only fair to say, included the cost of fuel, rent, and supply of new song books.

Lieutenant G. H. Ding, who is responsible for the work carried on in the new branch under the direction of the Captain, thanked God for such an opportunity, and expressed his determination to consecrate his powers for the success of such a venture.

Special features of the half night of prayer were the enrolment by the Divisional Commander of two Soldiers, Brothers W. Quarrall and H. Hagen, and a recruit, Brother J. Scott. The Rev. Mr. E. Lovelace, of the Free Methodist, also gave a stirring address on "The Home of the Children."

On Sunday, January 23, God manifested His power both at the goal and the Citadel, the comrades closing at 11:30 p.m., with seven seekers, including those claiming greater power, many who have never prayed in public before mounting the cross and overcoming self. The latest achievement is the Company of the Captain, making one hundred per cent increase; the first Sunday eight were present, and last Sabbath thirty-seven. God bless this branch of our work. We are also pleased to report the increase in our "War Cry" order from 225 to 275—E. J. Green, Captain.
